

The world stands still for me
everyone is rushing by can't breathe, can't see anything
it's so loud, but I am quiet listen
no one has time to notice
beauty
music
birds singing
they're just walking by, going to work appointments, home
unimportant
a single flower grows
in a grey world
colour
I'm watching a butterfly
in a destroyed world
made by humans.

Maja Hofner, course 1e1

God gave you a place on earth
for a few years,
so just go out and look around and face your fears.

With one smile you can start a friendship.
With one touch you can show you care.
With one person you can start a population.
With one vote you can change a nation.
One person can make a difference.
You can make a difference!

English
Poem

We are free, we have liberty
But do we really appreciate this mobility?
We can say, think, watch, and believe what we want While others need to fear their country's commandant!

But why don't we help them to get liberation?
Our problem is our certain situation!
Governments and corporations are friendly to oppressors
Just to fill their own treasures!
They are terrified of fighting for the contained Too scared of also being detained.

But we shouldn't be afraid
Rather together we should parade!
In thousands we can make a difference
And show that everybody has the same equivalence!

So let us fight together against the oppression
Against suppression
Together as one big nation
And one population

So let us change human minds
For humankind!
